

Rover Monopod

- At less than 10 lbs the monopod can quickly be moved around the field from drill to drill to get the perfect view at a low price.
- The tilt head with multiple set points eliminates the need to lean the mast for the best shot reducing fatigue for the operator easily making it easier to capture the best view.
- Power and record indicators that alert you when you are recording so no action is missed.
- Easily change heights from 7.5 to 12 ft.
- Compatible with popular video systems - HUDL ready
- Set up and take down unit in less than 5 minutes.
- Quick release monitor saves time
- Long life batteries for 3+ hours of uninterrupted use
- Capture video for highlights and/or recruiting video
- Be assured you have the same and correct view each time
- 1/4 Inch Aluminum construction - Heavy Duty
- Compatible with standard paint extension poles
- Manufactured in the USA by Coaches Video/Webb Electronics serving coaches since 1986.

Purchasing Options:

Sony HD Camcorder, SD Card and Adapter
Extension pole

Rover Monopod

- Unique tilt camera head system, set camera at virtually any angle without leaning pole. Reduces fatigue and helps capture the best view.
- Record and power indicators near monitor so all action is captured

